

CRL Stone – Sales Merchandiser – Ireland

CRL Stone is a rapidly expanding supplier of CRL Quartz and Ceralsio Ceramic surfaces which are used extensively as worksurfaces in kitchens and bathrooms as well as for flooring and wall cladding.

Following the successful launch of CRL Stone in Ireland in 2015, CRL Stone is now looking to recruit a Sales Merchandiser to lead the brand and further develop the kitchens and Interior Design market throughout Ireland.

Ideally the candidate will be based in the North however the territory does include the whole of Ireland. CRL Stone headquarters are located near Rochdale in the UK however all of our Irish customers are serviced from our CRL Stone partner's warehouse facilities located in Dublin where the full range of materials are held in stock.

Main Responsibilities

- Develop and maintain relationships with kitchen and bathroom showrooms
- Establish showroom displays using CRL Stone products
- Ensure showrooms have the correct product samples and brochures
- Build relationships with stone fabricators, architects and interior designers
- Seek out opportunities to present and quote CRL Stone products
- Communicate with the Sales Office on a regular basis
- Prepare weekly reports for the Sales Manager
- Occasional attendance at Trade Shows may be required

Skills and Experience

As this is a customer facing role the ideal candidate will have excellent interpersonal skills. Teamwork and communication skills will be required to ensure a good working relationship with the Team of Merchandisers as well as the Sales Office. The ideal candidate will be a self-starter with good organisational skills.

Experience within the kitchen & bathroom and interior design sector is preferred but not essential.
